

ICS PRESIDENT MATHIAS POSCH ELECTED INTO IAPCO COUNCIL

February 25, 2010

International Conference Services (ICS) is pleased to announce that Mathias Posch, ICS President, has been elected by popular vote to the International Association of Professional Congress Organizers (IAPCO) Council. Mathias will be primarily responsible for the International Relations component of the society over a two year term.

IAPCO is the universally accepted benchmark for quality within congress organization and is the global branding of excellence for the meetings industry. IAPCO maintains a strict code of conduct for its members which Mathias has been active in promoting through ICS. In particular, Mathias is focused on maintaining the strict quality standards, green and ethical guidelines of the association.

As the only steady Council Member of IAPCO in the Americas, Mathias is looking forward to bringing a fresh perspective to the Council and providing stronger industry relations from his part of the world.

"I am honoured to have been elected to serve on this prestigious council. IAPCO represents the international stamp of quality of Professional Congress Organizers and I am looking forward to promoting the ambitious goals of the association."
